

Bryson Rule - tenor, is a second year MM Vocal Performance student. Coming from Sweetwater, Texas, he graduated in May 2021 with his BM Vocal Performance degree from Hardin-Simmons University, where he was the Presser Scholar of his class. Trained in bel canto singing as well as Contemporary Commercial Music (CCM) technique, he has been seen in productions of Così fan tutte, Acis and Galatea, Into the Woods, The Secret Garden, Amahl and the Night Visitors, Little Women, The Merry Widow, Shrek the Musical, and The Wedding Singer. Bryson is a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Alpha Psi Omega, and Pi Kappa Lambda. He is a member of Conservatory Singers at University of Missouri- Kansas City and also serves as a section leader at Atonement Lutheran Church.